Dear valued Guidepoint Systems customers and partners,

Our thoughts go out to the individuals, businesses, and communities that have been affected by COVID-19. I want you to know that Guidepoint has business continuity measures in place to ensure our customers and partners have uninterrupted service during these uncertain times. We are proud to have robust technology in place that enables our employees to efficiently and effectively provide client service remotely, and stringent cleanliness guidelines for warehousing and fulfillment teams to ensure your orders ship safely and on time.

We know that your business relies upon the service and technologies Guidepoint provides, and it is our commitment to support you fully while this situation evolves. If you have any questions or concerns, please let us know how we can help by contacting us at 877-477-3463

Sincerely,

Tom Gafford
Vice President / Co-Founder
Guidepoint Systems

Get the point.
